Research

 kcl.ac.uk/research

Can we repair climate damage to the planet? Has social media changed the way we think? Why have so many lost their trust in vaccines at a time when we need them most? Will you accept or question these important issues?

At King's we're very proud of our standing reputation for world-leading research. Across the arts and sciences to many areas of health, our research has led to ground-breaking new discoveries and ongoing research including:

COVID Symptom Study app

Early in the COVID-19 pandemic, Zoe launched the COVID Symptom Study app which was created to track symptoms related to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19), allowing anyone to self-report daily.

Lead by Professor Tim Spector, King's researchers supported the big data analytics program to provide robust prediction models at individual and population levels

-  New symptom tracking app aims to slow spread of coronavirus
-  Researchers analysing Zoe COVID symptom tracking app data urge more people to use it

Medical graduates use AI for early cancer detection

Junior doctors Bhavagaya Bakshi (Medicine, 2011) and Miles Payling founded C the Signs in 2017 – a digital health start-up that uses artificial intelligence (AI) to help doctors diagnose cancer early.

The gallery of the future

The National Gallery and King's jointly launched 'National Gallery X' (NGX), a collaborative research and development programme exploring how key immersive technologies can inform new kinds of cultural experiences.

-  Launch of National Gallery X will investigate the 'gallery of the future'

The Widening Participation Department have helped us as parents immensely. My daughter was the first in our family to go to university and we did not have a clue about the support that is out there. King's staff took the time to explain all of this, which was a huge help.'

Mature applicants

Applicants with relevant work/life experience must also apply through UCAS. Your application will be considered on its own merits, and relevant experience may be considered alongside or in place of formal qualifications where suitable. Please note that many courses do require previous study and demonstrable high attainment in certain subject areas. We recommend that you contact Admissions before applying, with details of your academic background and appropriate experience.

 kcl.ac.uk/study/widening-participation/mature-students

Care-experienced students

We strongly advise all care-experienced applicants to disclose this on their UCAS application form. This will allow admissions staff to take your circumstances into consideration and will not have a negative impact on your application. We have a significant system of support for care-experienced students, including financial, academic and personal.

 kcl.ac.uk/care-experienced

Estranged

If you are under 25 and are no longer in contact with your parents or carers, you may qualify for the same support package as care-experienced students. We strongly encourage you to let us know so we can support you with your application and transition to King's. Please visit our web pages for more information about estrangement.

 kcl.ac.uk/estranged

Forced migrants

We offer Sanctuary Scholarships for students who cannot access student finance as a consequence of their immigration status. These scholarships cover the costs of tuition fees as well as providing a grant equal to the maximum student loan each year. Whilst we expect this scheme to continue annually, please check the website for up-to-date information before you apply.

Fees and funding

1 of 2

Tuition fees

Tuition fees may increase annually to take into account changes to the form and content of the course and the cost of inflation. Please check our fees and funding web pages for the most up-to-date tuition fees for all courses.

International student deposit

Once you have received an offer of a place at King's, you will be asked to pay a non-refundable deposit to secure it. This will be a part payment towards your first-year tuition fees. Further information is available on our website.

Additional costs

In addition to your course fees you may incur other costs, for example for field trips, equipment, materials, bench fees or studio hire. This will vary by course – please check the relevant course page for information on any additional costs before you apply.

Expected living costs in London

We would recommend budgeting for living costs in London to be £1,265 per month, excluding your tuition fees. The website www.gov.uk also recommends students have £1,265 a month to cover living expenses. These figures are only intended as a guide and how much you need will depend upon your lifestyle.

Please also allow for annual inflationary increases as part of your budget planning and remember to consider your initial arrival costs.

Overseas students, as a minimum, you should have access to the amount of living costs required for your visa.

Please check the UKVI website to confirm the requirements for your course before you apply.

Our Advice & Guidance Team can also provide further information and guidance.

Changes to courses and guide information

This guide was printed in the spring of 2021. It contains information on the courses that King's College London ('King's') intends to run for students who are planning to start university in the autumn of 2022.

King's has made every effort to ensure that the information provided is both helpful and accurate as at the date of publication. However, some changes, for example to courses, facilities or fees may become necessary due to legitimate staffing, financial, regulatory and academic reasons.

King's will endeavour at all times to keep any changes to a minimum and to keep students informed appropriately.
